

MEDIA INFORMATION

Performance, History, Turnover, Employees, Certification

Sälzer GmbH – Between you and aggression

Performance

Forced entry, bullet and blast resistant building components including windows, curtain walls, doors, partition walls and man traps.

Drop-arm barriers, blade barriers and bollards to prevent unauthorized vehicle access

Fire prevention and electronic surveillance.

Active research and development department.

Consulting, planning, installation and maintenance.

Sälzer GmbH offers individual security concepts from one house with its diverse product portfolio.

History

1777

Founding of the nail- and locksmith's shop by J. Ernst

1930

Assumption of the firm by locksmith master Heinrich Sälzer Sr.

1970

Company passed down to his son Heinrich Sälzer Jr.
Start of the development and production of security elements to protect against forced entry and bullets

1978

First patent for bullet resistant windows

1983

First patent for blast resistant windows

2006

Family firm in its 3rd generation

Certification

Over 120 patents, innovation patents and trademarks.

Over 380 certificates and technical reports, worldwide:

- Over 80 certificates for blast resistant products
- Over 150 certificates for bullet resistant products
- Over 150 certificates and technical reports for forced entry resistant products
-

Executive board	Heinrich Sälzer
Turnover 2005	Circa 17 Millionen Euro
Expected turnover 2006	Circa 19 Millionen Euro
Employees	186
Production- & administrative area	13.500 qm ² in Marburg, Germany
References	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Numerous penitentiaries, courts, police-stations in Germany • Commercial and national banks in Germany, Kazakhstan and Lithuania • Embassies in France, Great Britain, USA, UAE, Liberia, Kenya, Yemen, Japan, Germany et al. • Military facilities and barracks from various governments • Governmental and public agencies in Germany • Private residences and guest houses of prominent persons • Hospitals and forensic facilities • Industrial facilities and airports worldwide, for example in Germany, Austria, Italy and Egypt
Tested according to national and international standards	DIN EN, Europe - wide standard Various US-American standards Various Russian standards Also testing according customer special requirements
Firmenanschrift	Sälzer GmbH Dietrich-Bonhoeffer-Str. 1-3 35037 Marburg, Germany Mail: saelzer@saelzer.de / www.saelzer.de Tel.: + 49 (0) 6421 / 938 100 Fax: +49 (0)6421 / 938 190

Marburg, February 2007

Photo: production facility of the Sälzer GmbH